Dear Mr. Dutton

I believe that is something in the accumulating wisdom of the world about better late than never, but I've not seen that it always works. It is long time, in our way of looking at it, since Christmas, and your remembrance, along with your brother's able power (I think I'd you before that he is an able power) should have been acknowledged long before this. I'm sorry that the same. - I am sorry for your position and for seeing that there is not suffering. Don't contribute all in your power for giving above suffering?

Yours very sincerely

E. C. Johnson
